

IMMUNISATION PROGRAMME

The Royal London Hospital – Barts Health

IMMUNISATION PROGRAMME

The Royal London Hospital – Barts Health

The following vaccines are offered:

- Flu – From booking appointment
- Pertussis – At 20 weeks scan appointment but suitable from 16 weeks
- BCG given to well babies before discharge from RLH hospital, Barkantine Birth Centre or Home birth

IMMUNISATION SERVICE

Limited Services for:

- Pertussis and BCG vaccination Commenced in June 2019.
- Flu vaccine to commence at the end of September 2019.
- Full Service to commence from 16th September 2019

IMMUNISATION PROGRAMME

Service Availability in Tower Hamlet

- Unvaccinated pregnant women should still continue to be vaccinated by GP for Pertussis and FLU.
- RLH will refer all unvaccinated babies to Vaccination UK (VUK) for Immunisation

IMMUNISATION PROGRAMME

Who gets the information:

- Information of women vaccinated for Pertussis and Flu are emailed to GP's
- Information of babies vaccinated for BCG are sent to CHIS and VUK

IMMUNISATION PROGRAMME

PERTUSIS

- Offer rate – 89%
- Uptake rate – 6.6%
- Number vaccinated since June - 179

IMMUNISATION PROGRAMME

BCG

- Offer rate – 100%
- Uptake rate – 20%
- Number vaccinated since June - 138

IMMUNISATION PROGRAMME

FLU

Programme to commence end of September

Conclusion

“The best vaccine imaginable is only valuable to the extent we get it to everyone who needs it.”

Seth Berkley

